

I am writing regarding the FM station k-love. This is a wonderful and uplifting station to listen to. I'm not afraid to have my children listen to it as with the other stations. It has very encourageing music and promotes stong moral values. I would hate to lose this station and have to listen to the other stuff that promotes things I don't want my children hearing.